

Children's Film Fridays

SPAIN arts & culture, Cervantes Institute and University of Calgary present the first Children's Film Festival.

DONKEY-XOTE

- On Friday, May 6 at 5 pm.
- By Josep Pozo, 2007, 86 minutes.

The film begins with a narration of the story as told by Cervantes, but the narrator is interrupted by the donkey Rucio who insists on telling the “true” story of the adventure: Don Quixote was not crazy, but in fact an intelligent and passionate person. In Rucio's re-telling of his adventure with Don Quixote and his squire, Sancho Panza, we learn that Rucio wishes he were Quixote's horse, and that that the horse, Rocinante hates leaving his stable. As it develops, Dulcinea has a difficult time choosing between the knight and his wealthy sidekick. The rivalry between Quixote and Panza leads the two on a journey across Spain to Barcelona as they both vie for the beautiful woman's affections. To defend his honor among the imposters, the real Quixote must duel and win against the Knight of the Moon in order to learn the true identity of Dulcinea.

THE HAPPETS IN THE RAINBOW FOREST

- On Friday, May 13 at 5 pm.
- By Álex Colls, 2014, 75 minutes.
- Original title: La tropa de trapo en la selva de arcoiris.

The Happets feel the need to help other animals who are having a lot of trouble surviving, so they decide to go on a mission of solidarity that will take them to Rainbow Forest. There they will find a whole biodiversity in the form of Colourettes and Shadows and a dying Rainbow struggling for breath. The Happets are horrified because not only are the Colourettes in danger of death, so is the Rainbow, which is a symbol for them. Once again they'll have to muster all their ingenuity, knowledge and team work to save the symbol of dreams and games.

SNOWFLAKE, THE WHITE GORILLA

- On Friday, May 27 at 5 pm.
- By Andrés G. Schaer, 2011, 90 minutes
- Original title: Floquet de Neu (Copito de nieve)

Snowflake is special-she's the only white gorilla in the world, and the zoo's main attraction. Children love her, but the other gorillas-Petunia, Elvis and Anvil don't because she's different. With the help of an eccentric red panda named Jenga. Snowflake plans a secret mission to sneak out of the zoo and venture into the dangerous city to find the witch at the circus who can help her become a "normal" gorilla. Will Snowflake find the cure she's looking for, or realize that there's something more important than fitting in-being true to yourself?
