The Royal Opera of Madrid, Spain's major performing arts institution, returns to Montreal with the 3th edition of "Authentic Flamenco," a traditional Spanish flamenco show with award-winning artist Patricia Donn.

After successful shows in various cities across North and South America, Authentic Flamenco is coming to Canada in a tour, stopping in multiple cities nationwide. On this international tour, the Royal Opera of Madrid presents a program featuring established Flamenco artists and young promises, reaffirming the institution's dedication to promoting and safeguarding the Flamenco legacy, emphasizing its three core disciplines of singing, guitar playing, and dancing.

PATRICIA DONN

Born and raised in Granollers, Spain, Patricia Donn began her dance journey at an early age, refining her skills under renowned masters. From Barcelona's prestigious theaters to respected stages in Madrid and beyond, her performances blend tradition with innovation. Having won top prizes in national competitions, she sees herself not just as a dancer but as a storyteller, weaving tales of passion and emotion through her art.

TEATRO REAL

Teatro Real (Royal Opera of Madrid) is an independently-run public foundation with significant social involvement in its governing and funding bodies, and the participation –at state, regional and local level– of the Spanish Ministry of Culture, the Regional Government of Madrid and Madrid City Council. It is deemed Spain's major institution for the musical and performing arts, and is the leading national opera house, with significant and growing global outreach. In recent years, the Theatre has received numerous accolades, including the International Opera Award as the World's Best Opera Company.
